Maxwell Library celebrates 100 years!

On May 26, 1918, the Camillus Library Association was created. Today, Maxwell Memorial Library starts a year-long celebration of our journey from the second floor of a small village storefront to our beautifully renovated space in our historic brick building.

We begin our second hundred years with a new logo, a brand-new e-newsletter, invigorated programming, and, of course, a continuously updated catalog of books, movies, and more for our wonderful patrons. If you've been with us for a long time, thank you for your loyalty. If you're new to Maxwell, welcome!

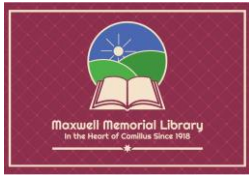

If you aren't yet receiving our newsletter online, please sign up for it. You'll stay updated on all our programs and news, right from your computer, tablet, or cell phone. Ask at the desk, or watch for a subscribe option on our website and Facebook page.

You'll also see some changes to our online event calendar--changes that we hope will make our programs even easier to explore. As always, please tell us what you would like to see us offer in the way of adult, child, and family programming and book and movie purchases.

Maxwell is your library! Make our second century even better than the first!

What's new? Check out On the Shelf on our website. Click on a book's jacket to go right to the catalog. Get a summary, see if it's in, or place a hold!
