Goodbye, Katy!

Welcome, Amanda!

After ten years as Maxwell's director, Katy Benson will retire December 1. Katy has served the library and the community with tremendous creativity and dedication, and she will be greatly missed. Thank you, Katy, for ten wonderful years.

Amanda Perrine, formerly assistant director at Marcellus Library, becomes Maxwell's new director. Amanda is currently the Vice President for the New York Library Association's Leadership and Management Section and the chair of the Education and Training Committee for the Junior League of Syracuse. When not at work, she enjoys traveling, reading, and tracing her family tree. Originally from Alden, a small town outside of Buffalo, she resides in Eastwood with her husband and four-year-old son. Maxwell Library wishes Katy and her husband all the best in their next adventures as they divide their time between Arizona and New York, and extends a very warm welcome to Amanda.

What's new? Check out On the Shelf on our website. Click on a book's jacket to go right to the catalog. Get a summary, see if it's in, or place a hold!
